

Critical Habitat Chatham Township

The Critical Habitat data set depicts critical areas for dependent species. This data set is a product of the NJDEP Landscape Project, a pro-active, ecosystem-level approach to the long-term protection of imperiled and priority species and their important habitats in New Jersey.

-  Wetlands with emergent vegetation
-  Forested wetlands (swamp)
-  Forest

