RELEASE # 2016-04

THE COLONY POOL CLUB OPENS SUMMER REGISTRATION

*Offers Increased Special Events and Social Activities for Members;
Live Music, Adult Luau & Pig Roast, and 'The Colony Log Roll'
Sure to Entertain Members This Summer*

CHATHAM TOWNSHIP, NJ – March 29, 2016 – The Chatham Township Committee today announced the opening of summer registration for The Colony Pool Club and encouraged residents to register online at www.TheColonyPoolClub.org. The website also highlights the various new amenities and increased special events and social activities planned for members this summer.

Mayor Curt Ritter, speaking on behalf of the Committee, said, “We invite all families, seniors and young adults alike to join us this summer at The Colony Pool Club for what we expect will be our best summer yet. We experienced a seven percent increase in membership last year following new improvements that were made to the Club including the Colony Log Roll, new gas grills, and additional special events. This summer we’re adding additional movie nights, more live music and an Adult Luau & Pig Roast. The Colony Pool Club remains one of the best kept secrets in Chatham Township, offering arguably the most affordable membership rates of any swim club in the area, with amenities and activities that are hard to beat!”
