CHATHAM TOWNSHIP LAUNCHES ONLINE SURVEY TO SOLICIT COMMUNITY FEEDBACK AS IT REDESIGNS TOWNSHIP WEBSITE

CHATHAM TOWNSHIP, NJ – April 18, 2016 – The Chatham Township Committee today announced that as it is redesigning the Chatham Township website (www.chathamtownship-nj.gov) and is soliciting input from residents and local business through an online survey. Individuals can take the anonymous survey by visiting <http://chathamtwp.questionpro.com>

Mayor Curt Ritter, speaking on behalf of the Committee, said, “Communications is paramount to any local government and outside our social media channels on Facebook and Twitter, our Township website offers us one of the best ways to inform and educate our residents on the many services and offerings available to them. As we seek to improve usability, content, and overall design of the website, we encourage our residents and local businesses to provide their candid feedback and take this online survey. We want to hear how we can further improve the website, what can be done to make it more user-friendly and what additional features and content our residents would like to see on their Township website.”
